

BUS DRIVER EXAMINATION AND TRAINING

The driver of a school bus is charged with a serious responsibility for the safety of the children in his care. It is therefore important that a properly licensed driver who has passed all examinations prescribed by the statutes and the department of public safety only operates school buses. Such license will be issued every two years to a driver who complies will all regulations.

In application for a bus driver's license and in accordance with state law, each bus driver will be required to have a physical examination every two years, and attend approved bus driver training every five years.

In addition to the above, drivers will need to meet the requirements of the school bus insurance carrier.
