

STUDENT TEACHERS

Accredited teacher training colleges and universities may place student teachers in District schools.

Building principals shall be responsible for continued orderly progress of the educational program during the service of student teachers and shall take care that students are not subjected to excessive student teaching situations.